Morning Song

D. Osborn

1. I thank Thee, LORD, for the sleep that Thou hast giv - en me. A time of rest; to give me strength for this new day. (this new day) I am re - freshed. And so Dear

Fa - ther, now I thank Thee. And for Thy con - stant care, this com - ing day I pray.

1. I thank Thee LORD, for the sleep that Thou has given me,
A time of rest to give me strength for this new day.
I am refreshed, and so dead Father now I think Thee,
And for Thy constant care this coming day I pray.
2. Before us now lies a chance to serve our Maker;
The choice to do all of the things we know we should.
Surrounded by all the works of our Creator,
And serving others as our humble Master would.
3. With each new hour may our faith continue growing;
And may The hope always gleam brighter in our eyes;
To live by love, so by our our actions we are showing
That we desire to win the everlasting prize.
4. So may our minds be filled with thoughts of holiness,
The word of Christ be ever in each servant's heart.
And may we strive to lead each other unto righteousness,
That we may be as Thou, our loving Father, art.
