THY KINGDOM SHALL COME

Words: Sis. Jean Galbraith Music: Bro. Ian Hyndman
Conference Hymn - Adelaide, 1972

Written in 1971

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time. It consists of three systems of music. The first system has 8 measures, the second has 8 measures, and the third has 8 measures. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The melody is primarily in the right hand, with a supporting bass line in the left hand. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the right hand.

Thy Kingdom shall come, though the waves of men's scorning
Beat on the world through the dark of its pain;
Sure in the east is the promise of morning,
Jesus returning - the King come to reign.
 Send out Thy light,
 Conquer the night,
God of all beauty and Ruler of all.

Then hear Thou Thy children, their antiphon singing
Strong through earth's clamour that bids them be dumb,
While through the ages Thy promise is ringing,
Jesus returns - and Thy Kingdom will come.
 Send out Thy light,
 Conquer the night,
God of all majesty, Ruler of all.

For Thine is the Kingdom, Thy power revealing
Earth is still Thine, despite sorrow and wrong;
Send to each seeker, Thy cleansing and healing,
Give to the weak ones Thy power to make strong.
 Send out Thy light,
 Conquer the night,
God of perfection and Ruler of all.

No longer triumphant shall torment and scorning
Reign in dark places; the cruel are dumb.
Strong in Thy beauty, with love for adorning,
Glad sing Thy children "Thy Kingdom has come".
 Send out Thy light,
 Conquer the night,
Father omnipotent, ruling o'er all.
