O CHRIST OUR LORD, WHOSE BEAUTY

Words: Jean Galbraith Music: Ian Hyndman
Conference Hymn 1980

Written in 1979

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of four systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The music is primarily chordal, with some melodic lines in the treble clef. The first system has 5 measures, the second 5, the third 5, and the fourth 5. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the fourth system.

1. O Christ our Lord, whose beauty
Shines on our feeble ways,
Transform our path of duty
Into a path of praise;
Light in our hearts the wonder
Of fellowship with thee,
That no temptation sunder
Those whom thou madest free.

3. Without thy strength we falter,
And all our love seems vain
Who fear thy path of loving
May be a path of pain;
But see, ahead is dawning
Light after evenfall,
When brighter than the morning,
God shall be all in all.

2. But, strong in thee abiding -
Not in our strength, but thine,
Wholly in thee confiding,
Weak branches of thy vine -
Bring forth thy fruit of healing,
The fruit thou madest fair,
The truth of God revealing,
And show thy beauty there.
